

Sponsorship Prospectus

Invitation

It is our pleasure to invite you to partner with the 14th biennial Footwear Biomechanics Symposium (FBS 2019). The FBS 2019 conference will be held at Delta Lodge in Kananaskis just a short drive from Calgary, Canada. Our opportunities span from supporting social functions to recognizing scientific excellence with Award and Keynote support.

Our Sponsorship Mission

It is our objective to provide simple, yet varied sponsorship opportunities, thus addressing the varied requirements of our partners. Please note that all of the revenue generated from our sponsors will be used in order to help offset the following expenses:

- Provide affordable student registration rates
- Pay for emerging scientist awards
- Keynote speaker remuneration
- Social events and entertainment
- Support of student events (budget permitting)

Congress Details

Please visit our website (fbs2019.footwearbiomechanics.org) for additional details regarding the schedule, organizing committee, accommodation and other details.

We want to thank you for providing us with the opportunity to host your organization, and look forward to exceeding your expectations.
